

Pronunciation: S vs SH

Many students find it difficult to pronounce
's' and 'sh'.

The following pairs might help overcome the problem.

sake	shake	sip	ship
same	shame	sock	shock
sank	shank	sop	shop
saver	shaver	sore	shore
sealed	shield	sort	short
seat	sheet	sour	shower
see	she	sue	shoe
self	shelf	sew	show
sell	shell	mass	mash
sift	shift	Paris	parish
sign	shine	plus	plush
sin	shin	puss	push

Tongue Twisters and Nursery Rhymes to practice: 's' and 'sh'

She sells seashells by the seashore

and the shells she sells are seashells

I'm sure

Shy Shelly says she shall sew sheets.

Six slippery snails slid slowly seaward.

Silly Sally swiftly shooed seven silly sheep.

The seven silly sheep Silly Sally shooed shilly-shallied south.

These sheep shouldn't sleep in a shack;
sheep should sleep in a shed.

Swan swam over the sea.

Swim, swan, swim!

Swan swam back again.

Well swum, swan!